JACK KELLY
THOUGHT TO BE INSANE

Jack Kelly, who operates a cab stand at the Alwood Hotel, was placed in the crazy cell at the county jail Friday morning about 6 o'clock, apparently violently insane.

Four strong men were required to hold the demented fellow in subjection.
Following an attack by Kelly on a cook in a Main street restaurant a police call was turned in with the above results. It is said that Kelly who had recently gone into business for himself, had tried to do all the work himself, and make all the night and day trains, and that he had been greatly overworked. It is reported that he had been accustomed to imbibing as many as eight cups of coffee at a time, as a stimulant, and that the strain and worry attending hard work, and the loss of sleep was too much for the poor fellow.
